ST. LOUIS, MO., SUNDAY AUGUST 11, 1901.

THE SUNDAY REPUBLIC'S

COLLECTION OF SONGS.

USED BY PERMISSION OF THE BALMER AND WEBER MUSIC HOUSE COMPANY.

MUSIC SUPPLEMENT TO THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC.

So Far Away.

SONG.

Words by EDWARD OXENFORD. Music by JOSEPH L. ROECKEL.

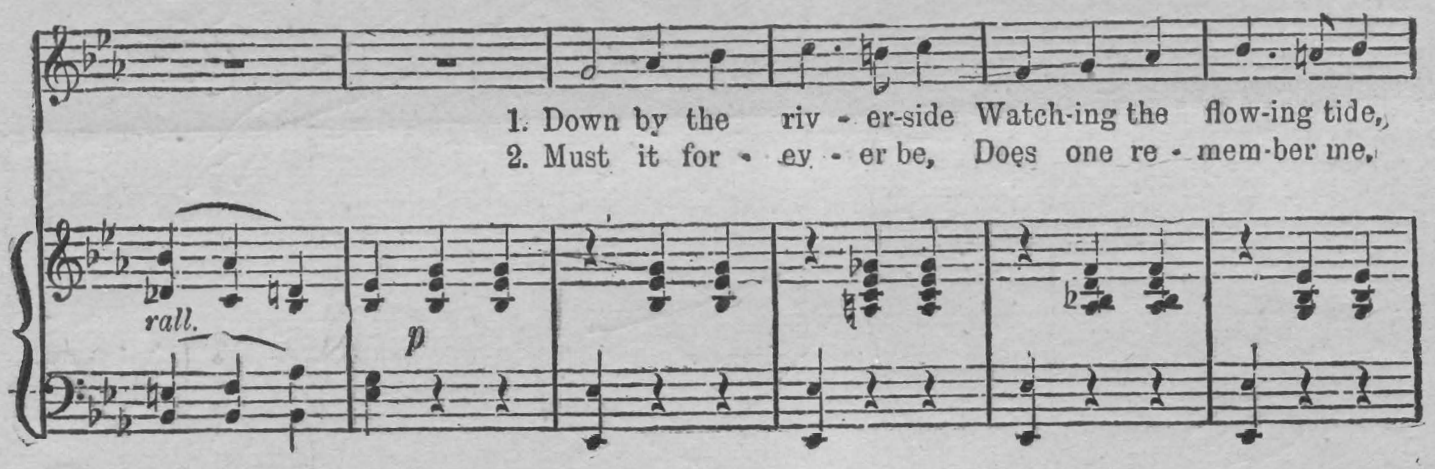
Andantino semplice.

1. Down by the riv - er-side Watch-ing the flow-ing tide,
2. Must it for - ev - er be, Does one re - mem-ber me,



Mem - o - ries old - en glide Thro' me to day! Thoughts of a lov - ing face Long miles a - cross the sea, Ah who can say? Was it a last fare-well

p rall.

Fair - in its youth - ful grace Borne in life's bit - ter race So far a - way!
Ah, on - ly one can tell! Who knows if Love can dwell So far a - way!

p rall.

Expressive.

O, I can ne'er for-get Love is my am - u - let Treas - ured as Will the day nev - er come When o'er the o - cean's foam Hi - ther my

mf

rall. teneramente.

ev - er yet Morn ings of May! Though we are part - ed now love will roam ev - er to stay? Ah, yes the snow - y main

dim. rall. p dolce.

cres. f

Sweet is the plight - ed vow One is loved still, I trow, So far a-E'en now brings home a - gain One I loved not in vain So far acres.

f con anima rall e dim.

way! One is loved still I trow, So far a - way!
way! One I loved not in vain So far a - way!

f rall e dim.

2d time. poco a poco dim e rall.

p

So far a - way! So far a - way!

p poco a poco dim. e rall. pp rit. ppp